[redacted] Met with Mr. J.R. Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, who advised that Chairman Rivers is interested in a detail of Agency covert action projects regardless of whether the Agency feels that an individual project is important or not. He indicated that the Chairman is quite concerned over the current NSA matter. He also advised that there was a meeting with the Speaker of the House, who advised that there will be no hearings by the House Education Committee with regard to Agency involvement with the NSA.

[redacted] Met with Senator Karl Mundt and arranged with him for a breakfast meeting and general Agency briefing after next week. The Senator indicated that his time was fully committed during the coming week. He also indicated that he would appreciate it if Mr. William Woodruff could accompany him on his visit to the Agency. He was most appreciative of the Director's offer of a briefing prior to the next CIA substantive briefing. With regard to the Senator's letter concerning the U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT item relating to Soviet support of the North Vietnamese, he advised that he would appreciate it if I could advise him on Monday or Tuesday as to the basic accuracy of the figures used in that report. It was a most cordial meeting and the Senator expressed his admiration for the Director and the Agency.
